Data protection regulations

MBK MASCHINENBAU GMBH appreciate your visit to our Web-Site, as well as your interest in our company and our products. The protection of your privacy is an important objective for us when processing your personal data. We process personal data that are collected when you visit our websites in accordance with the data protection regulations of the country in which the office responsible for data processing is based. MBK web pages can contain links to web pages of other suppliers to whom this data protection explanation does not apply.

Statement of Purpose

The personal data which is made available to us from your side will be used by us exclusively for answering your enquiries, to process your orders or to give you access to particular information or offers (i.e. customer portal) and to design and improve those according to your individual requirements.

If we are to keep our customer relationships up to date, it may also be necessary for us to

- store and process your personal data, as well as communicating or forwarding such data for example to our Group companies, in order to be in a better position to deal with your issues or to improve our products and services or
- for us (or a third party commissioned by us) to use these data to inform you about MBK offers (i.e. MBK newsletter), which will benefit your business or in order to carry out online surveys, which will better enable us to meet your requirements.

The MBK MASCHINENBAU GMBH will only record, process and use the personal information you provide online for the purposes indicated, unless the information is recorded, processed or used

- for a further purpose that is directly connected with the original purpose for which the information was recorded,
- to the extent necessary for preparing, negotiating and performing contracts with you,
- for complying with legal obligations or official or court directions,
- for justifying or protecting against legal claims or in defence of court actions
- or for the purpose of preventing misuse or other illegal activities, e.g. deliberate attacks on MBK Maschinenbau GmbH systems, in order to ensure the security of our data.

Disclosure of personal data to third parties

Your personal data will not be shared with third parties for neither non-commercial nor commercial purposes. We will neither provide your personal data to third parties nor sell this data in any form, with the exception of MBK MASCHINENBAU GMBH affiliates.

If you order informational material, we will use your personal information only within the MBK MASCHINENBAU GMBH and the companies who are contracted to undertake the printing and shipping. We will not pass on personal data to a third party without your explicit consent.

Automatically collected, non-personal data

When you access our Websites, information not assigned to a specific person is automatically collected (e.g. Internet browser and operating system used; domain name of the Website you came from; number of visits; average retention period; requested pages). This information may enable conclusions to be drawn about personal data. Any recording, processing and utilisation of your communication and/or usage-related information that is absolutely necessary is fully compliant with all data protection regulations.

We may use this data to monitor the attractiveness of our Web site and improve their performance or content. Moreover, personal data will only be stored and processed for reasons outlined in section "Statement of Purpose".

Legal protection for children and minors

Persons under 18 should not submit any personal data to us without the agreement of their parents. We do not solicit personal data from children or minors. We do not collect such data and will not disclose it to third parties.

Security

MBK MASCHINENBAU GMBH uses technical and organizational security measures in order to protect the personal data that we may have collected from you against accidental or intentional manipulation, loss, destruction or against access by unauthorised persons. Our security measures are continuously improved according to technological developments.

The MBK website contains links to other websites. MBK MASCHINENBAU GMBH are not responsible for the privacy practices or the content of such other sites.

Use of cookies

Certain pages use cookies, although it is not always possible for us to indicate this to you. MBK use cookies to implement order services and to technically implement user sessions within the customer portal. Cookies are small files that are temporarily stored on your hard disk. You can view our public website without using cookies. Most browsers accept cookies automatically. However, you can de-activate the storage of cookies or set your browser to accept cookies only for the duration of a single internet session. If you do not accept any cookies, it is possible that, in individual cases, some of the website functions may be limited.

Questions and comments

In the course of the further development of the Internet, we will also continuously adjust our data privacy policy. Any changes will be posted on this page. Therefore, please check the site regularly to keep up-to-date on the current status of the policy. Please do not hesitate to contact us should you have any questions concerning the processing of your personal data.
